

Foreman - Bug #10332

encrypt_websockets = off is not working

04/30/2015 07:06 AM - Julien Pivotto

Status: Duplicate
Priority: Normal
Assignee:
Category: Compute resources
Target version:
Difficulty:	Fixed in Releases:
Triaged:	Found in Releases: 1.8.0
Bugzilla link:	Red Hat JIRA:
Pull request:
Description
When I set encrypt_websockets = off I can not access the novnc console anymore.
Related issues:
Is duplicate of Foreman - Bug #9603: Setting called websockets_encrypt does n...	Closed 03/02/2015

History

#1 - 04/30/2015 07:11 AM - Dominic Cleal

- Category set to Compute resources
- Difficulty deleted (trivial)

Are you accessing Foreman over HTTPS?

Could you provide the contents of your web browser's console/log? It might be an HTTP/HTTPS resource mismatch that it's blocking.

#2 - 04/30/2015 07:29 AM - Julien Pivotto

I access foreman with https and I have network.websocket.allowInsecureFromHTTPS set in firefox.

#3 - 04/30/2015 07:41 AM - Daniel Lobato Garcia

- Is duplicate of Bug #9603: Setting called websockets_encrypt does not work correctly added

#4 - 04/30/2015 07:42 AM - Julien Pivotto

- File console.log.txt added

#5 - 04/30/2015 07:43 AM - Julien Pivotto

<https://github.com/theforeman/foreman/pull/2340>

#6 - 05/27/2015 11:19 AM - Dominic Cleal

- Status changed from New to Duplicate

Files

console.log.txt	12.3 KB	04/30/2015	Julien Pivotto
-----------------	---------	------------	----------------