Description gridster-rails has been updated from 0.1.5.1 to 0.2.1, then 0.5.6. Since 0.2.1, the grey boxes that act as the background on the dashboard widgets are missing. The widgets only appear with a white background, which makes it hard to tell where they begin and end. Since gridster-rails is pinned to ~> 0.1, this will affect all branches.

Revision e75ad04b - 11/12/2015 05:56 AM - Tomer Brisker

Fixes #12418 - Correct dashboard behaviour for updated gridster

Updated version of gridster changed the widget class from gs_w to gs-w:

<https://github.com/ducksboard/gridster.js/commit/c1668d9ab6261d3c5dc4215abdb73ca516492c19>

This led to a bit of breakage in css and js which is fixed by this commit.

There was also a change in the way the total width of the gridster element was calculated that required a change to the initialization.
