Description the original text lacks some whitespaces due to wrong helper extraction.  e.g.  <code>When editing a template, you must assign a listof operating systems which this template can be used with. Optionally, you canrestrict a template to a list of host groups and/or environments.</code>  <code>When a Host requests a template (e.g. during provisioning), Foremanwill select the best match from the available templates of that type, in thefollowing order:</code>
