History

#1 - 05/09/2016 03:04 AM - Tomer Brisker

- Category set to Web Interface

- Status changed from New to Assigned

Currently with no plugins this occurs at around 800px width; any plugin that adds a top-level menu item makes this width larger. Due to plugins, breaking width can't be set at a fixed size but rather dynamically adjusted.

what's the status here?

#3 - 05/18/2017 03:05 AM - Tomer Brisker

- Status changed from Assigned to New

There was no progress, a different approach has been suggested by changing to vertical navigation. Moving back to New for now.

- Status changed from New to Rejected

This is no longer relevant as we switched to vertical navigation which doesn't have this issue.
