Description

When deleting compute resource, there is now only 'Are you sure ?', I think that it would be better if the confirmation box say something like 'Are you sure to delete host XXX ?'

compute resource wont be deleted if it has any associated hosts, so it gets deleted only if its unused.

I agree it's safe, but this would be just more convenient to be sure of what compute resource is deleted.
Even if it's only not to have to recreate it if you made a mistake :)
