| Description An admin is able to change other created user's name. Although the user himself is not being able to change his username. When a user changes his/her username, it says "Successfully updated <username>" but actually the username has not been changed To reproduce: 1)Go to the My Account 2)try to change username. 3)it will show "Successfully updated <username>" 4)Again go to My Account, the username will not be updated. | |
