Description
Our spinner on the subscription pages should adhere to patternfly best practices as described here: http://www.patternfly.org/pattern-library/communication/loading-state/#design
Fix the spinner so it is centered and includes the word "Loading".

Fixes #23922: make spinner adhere to pf.

Make the spinner adhere to patternfly best practices by centering it and by including the word "Loading". This commit introduces a LoadingState component that should be moved to patternfly-react in the future.
