Description
It would be nice if there was a little more information on the graphs shown on the homepage. Particularly the datetime of a certain run, instead of just the Runtime. Or maybe even a clickable link to the report if possible That way one can quickly match a interesting run to it's report. Or maybe a search option to search for reports with runtimes =&gt; x sec.
