Description The new menuing system is really slick. Intuitively, I would think that clicking on the "Hosts" menu there would be a link to create a new one, instead of having to click twice (All Hosts/New Host).

If this request get votes we will add it to the menu.

To get an immediate solution follow the example at the end of the blog <http://foremanplugins.wordpress.com/> there is an example of a plugin that does exactly what you are asking.
