Description
The Foreman shows a flavor of 2GB Standard even though it is really configured as a 512MB Standard flavor.
Attached are 2 screenshots 1 shows the foreman host vm tab the other 1 shows the rackspace server view
Those screens were taken from the exact same virtual machine

Hello,

this is likely error in the fog library. We need to patch it there perhaps.

Quick look did not reveal where this is stored, it might come from Rackspace itself, or it is some kind of configuration in the fog.
