

Katello - Bug #4840

content view add/remove repos updated messages too generic

03/25/2014 03:45 PM - Justin Sherrill

Status: Rejected
Priority: Normal
Assignee: Eric Helms

Description
The messages on content view repo assignment are too generic.
Adding/removing repos for example just results in 'Content view Updated'. It should actually inform the user what was done.
