- Status changed from New to Rejected

Joseph, you had the system attached to a wrong (Employee) subscription. You need to use the one with RHSCL in. The pool ids are confusing, they both start the same.

I re-subscribed the system and executed foreman-installer for you.

Made this small change for 1.5 manual to do additional check:

https://github.com/theforeman/theforeman.org/pull/213

For RHEL7 we should only recommend to use subscription-manager repo --enable xyz
