Description

Cloned from https://bugzilla.redhat.com/show_bug.cgi?id=1083316

Description of problem:

When user goes into content search and enters the environment picker, there is a "manage organizations" link that throws an error. This probably needs to point to the foreman orgs stuff, and not older katello stuff.

How reproducible:

Steps to Reproduce:

1. Push content views into various environments
2. Content > Content Search > Results > "+" (The Environment picker)
3. Note the link, "Manage Environments" and click it.

Actual results:

Error page - we're probably still trying to point to the old Environments UI

Expected results:

User correctly sent to Environments setup page.
