Description
when new host is created by GUI it ignores selected security group example from log:
<pre>Adding Compute instance for mdu-ddt569.int.na.XXXXX.com Cache read: use_shortcode_for_vms Setting Load (1.1ms) SELECT "settings".* FROM "settings" WHERE "settings"."name" = 'use_shortcode_for_vms' ORDER BY name LIMIT 1 Cache write: use_shortcode_for_vms KeyPair Load (0.5ms) SELECT "key_pairs".* FROM "key_pairs" WHERE "key_pairs"."compute_resource_id" = 1 LIMIT 1 creating VM with the following options: {"name"=>"mdu-ddt569.int.na.XXXXX.com", "key_name"=>"foreman-18e75c84a-eb5f-4977-84e3-2dfa8b0bb239", "availability_zone"=>"na.dev", "block_device_mapping"=>[{"device_name"=>"/dev/vda", "volume_size"=>20, "volume_id"=>""}], "flavor_ref"=>"49", "tenant_id"=>"103a49bb861e485ea05aa78f9b0216bd", "security_group"=>"dev-single", "image_ref"=>"4d189653-932d-4fb6-91ca-ec84c3578fb4"}</pre> looking at instance details:
<pre>nova list-secgroup 3290efda-d8bd-448e-9765-65e34cf332b2 +-----+-----+-----+ Id Name Description +-----+-----+-----+ 21 default default +-----+-----+-----+</pre> but when host is created by API call (curl) it works as expected. log file:
<pre>creating VM with the following options: {"name"=>"mdu-ddt569-2.int.na.XXXXX.com", "key_name"=>"foreman-18e75c84a-eb5f-4977-84e3-2dfa8b0bb239", "availability_zone"=>"na.dev", "block_device_mapping"=>[{"device_name"=>"/dev/vda", "volume_size"=>20, "volume_id"=>""}], "flavor_ref"=>"49", "image_ref"=>"4d189653-932d-4fb6-91ca-ec84c3578fb4", "security_groups"=>["dev-single"], "tenant_id"=>"103a49bb861e485ea05aa78f9b0216bd"}</pre> the problem is with the security group parameter: ' "security_groups"=>["dev-single"]' vs "'security_group"=>"dev-single"'

I made an attempt in <https://github.com/theforeman/foreman/pull/2140>, I thought it was a simple fix, but its not and I don't have any time to invest in this soon.
