Pull request:	https://github.com/foreman/foreman/pull/1773
Description
there is currently no validation when the models use has_and_belongs_to_many
This issue is a result of needing to generate validation errors and audit trail for https://github.com/foreman/foreman/pull/1454

Moving status back to New. PR <https://github.com/foreman/foreman/pull/1773> is not complete but it's a start.

I don't recall what could cause two identical rows in the join table. I see this task as a "nice to have" and not "must have" as it changes a lot of code with little upside unless there is a real pain there something is causing duplicate rows.
