Description
I've tested editing a Host, changed class assignment (add or remove a class for that host) and that is not seen in the "Audit log".
This audit info would be helpful.
Btw: The "Audit log" initial sort order doesn't seem logical. Now we have to click "changed at" twice to see the latest event.

fixes #777 - this enable auditing of when a host is changing its puppet class assignmetns one limitation of this patch is that at the moment, each class change gets its own audit record.

- Target version deleted (0.3)

Audit log order has already been resolved, but in order to implement the auditing for class changes, we would need to change the db schema, i'm pushing this one version forward as we want to release 0.3 soon.
